

GLUP

LONGAVÍ

ROSADO

Glup Rosado, comes from a beautiful parcel in Huerta de Maule, a colonial town that witnessed the history of Chilean viticulture. The nose has high intensity of red fresh fruit, with violets, and a medium body with grip and refreshing acidity. This wine looks for texture and elegance.

REVELATION WINE

This wine is a collaboration between two winemakers – Julio Bouchon of Chile and David Nieuwoudt of South Africa. Longaví, meaning 'snake's head', draws on the spirit and legends of two continents. The vine wreath depicted in the logo, denotes the ouroboros, an ancient African symbol representing nature's eternal cycle of renewal. The condor soaring high above the Andes represents freedom and the search for perfection. This sacred bird is believed to be man's messenger to the gods. Longaví wines will certainly please both man and the gods!
